1981 Media Guide

MEDIA INFORMATION

PRESS BOX

The working area for writers, broadcasters and photographers is located on the Club Level between the south and west corners of the stadium. The facility can accommodate over 150 media representatives in the upper press area and contains fifteen booths in the lower area for radio, television, photographers, public address and scoreboard operation.

CREDENTIALS

All applications must be made through the Lions Public Relations Department. Credentials are available to working members of the media. Since no "Will Call" is in use, most credentials and parking passes are mailed. Please allow at least three days for mail delivery. Credentials may also be left at a local hotel for pick-up when requests are made too late to guarantee mail delivery.

PARKING

A parking pass is required to enter the press parking area. The press parking area is located adjacent to the Press Box on the southwest side of the stadium. Enter through Gate 1 off Opdyke Road.

SERVICES

Statistical information is distributed before, during and after the game. Spotters and statisticians are available to radio and TV crews upon advance request. Western Union, SportsComm and CanFax services are available. Please contact these organizations in advance if you plan on filing. Food and beverages for the working media are available in the Press Lounge.

TRAINING CAMP

The Lions enter their seventh year of training at Oakland University, located less than three miles from the Pontiac Silverdome. The media work room is located in Vandenberg Hall in the Pioneer Room on the second floor. This building is next to Hill House, the team's headquarters.

WILLIAM CLAY FORD

Owner and President

The Detroit Lions' most enthusiastic fan is also the club's chief executive, William Clay Ford, who is entering his 25th year of association with the team, including 21 as its president and 18 as sole owner.

Actually, his feeling and affection for the Lions go back to 1933, the club's first season in Detroit. The franchise had just moved into the Motor City from Portsmouth, Ohio, and his father, the late Edsel Ford, took young Bill to see this "new" team in action at the University of Detroit Stadium. Like the rest of Detroit, the youngster took an instant liking to the Lions.

As both a fan and chief executive, his primary goal is to bring a championship to the Lions' loyal followers.

Mr. Ford has already been instrumental in helping to bring the championship game to the Detroit area and the State of Michigan. He'll be the host owner next January, when Super Bowl XVI comes to the Silverdome.

Born and raised in the automotive industry, Mr. Ford is the grandson of the late Henry Ford, founder of Ford Motor Company. As the youngest of four children of Edsel Ford, he attended Detroit University School in Grosse Pointe, Michigan, and Hotchkiss School in Lakeville, Connecticut. After a tour of duty in the Naval Air Corps, he was graduated from Yale with a degree in economics, at which point he joined Ford's sales and advertising staff, and later served on the industrial relations staff where he was a member of the committee that negotiated the historic 1949 contract with the UAW-CIO.

On his way to the vice chairmanship of the company, to which he was elected in April, 1980, Mr. Ford gained special satisfaction as executive in charge of the development and subsequent introduction of the Continental Mark II, successor to the classic Lincoln Continental that had been developed and introduced by his father in 1939.

A member of the Ford Motor Company Board of Directors since 1948, Mr. Ford had over-all supervision of the company's product design program from 1956 until his election to the vice chairmanship. He is one of four members of the Office of Chief Executive who share responsibility for general management of the company; chairman of the Executive Committee; a member of the Finance Committee and the Policy and Strategy Committee; and chairman of the latter's Design Subcommittee.

The Lions' chief executive is also chairman of the board of Greenfield Village and the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn, Michigan; secretary, treasurer of Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit; president of the Edsel B. Ford Institute for Medical Research; a trustee of Hotchkiss School and the Eisenhower Medical Center; and a director of Boys' Clubs of America, the National Tennis Hall of Fame, United Foundation of Detroit and the Economic Club of Detroit. He is married to the former Martha Firestone. They have three daughters and a son, William Jr., who is treasurer of the Lions.

RUSS THOMAS

Executive Vice President and General Manager

One of the National Football League's most respected executives is the Lions' Russ Thomas, now in his 34th year of service to the club. His climb to the top of his profession has come about with a firm belief in the philosophy of hard work and dedication.

Since coming to the Motor City from his native West Virginia, Thomas has achieved notoriety as a player, scout, coach and broadcaster with the Lions. And now he holds the multi-faceted position of running the day-to-day operation of the club, a post he's held since 1967.

Thomas was appointed Executive Vice President in 1972.

One of the prime driving forces in bringing Super Bowl XVI to the Pontiac Silverdome, Russ worked with other top government and business officials to gain support of NFL ownership. Long an event for south or western climates, the Super Bowl was finally voted into a northern site, primarily due to the work of Thomas and other community leaders. Michigan Governor William Milliken honored Russ for his efforts in a proud moment last year.

Thomas is considered an expert in NFL matters and in player contract negotiations. He has been given even more responsibilities in the last three years, as Mr. Ford has been devoting more time to the automotive business. Russ regularly represents Detroit at the NFL owners' meetings.

Russ was an assistant coach when the Lions won NFL Championships in 1952 and 1953. In addition to his coaching duties, and before the advent of film exchange and computers, Russ was in charge of scouting opposing teams, evaluating college prospects and negotiating player salaries.

In his playing days, Thomas was an outstanding lineman. He came out of West Virginia as one of the state's most sought after high school football and track stars. He held the state high school shot put and discus record in West Virginia for years. He went on to Ohio State, where he played on a national championship team under Paul Brown and earned All-Big Ten honors and All-America mention for his work with the Buckeyes. In addition, he earned letters in track and wrestling at Ohio State. Thomas was drafted by the Lions in 1946 and played four seasons before a knee injury ended a promising playing career. He played both ways for Detroit and gained League recognition while serving as the co-captain of the team.

Thomas was an assistant coach at St. Bonaventure in 1950-51, before moving back to the Lions staff. In 1964, after ten years on the staff, Mr. Ford named Thomas Director of Personnel, a post he held for three years until being named Vice President and General Manager.

Russ and his wife, Dorothy, live in Walled Lake. They are the parents of two married sons, John and Jim.

TIM ROONEY

Director of Player Personnel

A familiar and respected name in NFL circles is the Lions' Director of Player Personnel, Pittsburgh native Tim Rooney. He came to the Lions in 1979 to coordinate the club's college and pro scouting, aid in evaluating talent, and take part in trade discussions and other administrative affairs. Tim's help in the college draft has brought Detroit some of the best college talent, as evidenced by the eight 1980 draft choices who made the Lions roster.

Rooney, 39, came to Detroit after helping the Pittsburgh Steelers to three Super Bowls and seven straight playoff appearances. He handled the Pittsburgh pro scouting department from 1972 to 1978.

Tim actually grew up with NFL football, as his family name has been synonymous with the pro game almost since its beginning. Tim's uncle, Art Rooney, Sr., is the owner of the Steelers and introduced pro football to the city of Pittsburgh in 1933. Tim is also the cousin of Dan Rooney, President of the Steelers, and Art Rooney, Jr., the Vice President of the Pittsburgh club.

A graduate of Duquesne, Rooney gained coaching experience with positions at Villanova and Rhode Island, prior to joining the Steelers.

Tim lives in Birmingham with his wife, Mary Ann, and two children, Mike and Sarah.

SCOUTING STAFF

A group so instrumental in the many fine Detroit drafts during the past few years, is the Lions' scouting staff, composed of three highly qualified men; (l-r) Joe Bushofsky, Jerry Neri and Dirk Dierking.

Neri, senior member of the trio, is the western area scout. Based in Los Angeles, he is a veteran of 12 years with the club. Before joining the Lions in 1969, Neri coached at various levels. Following a fine career as a halfback at Villanova, he joined the school's coaching staff in 1943. He went on to positions with Loyola, Yale and the Washington Redskins. In 1965, he was made supervisor of the Pacific Coast scouting system of BLESTO, a talent-hunting combine representing many pro teams, including the Lions.

Bushofsky joined the Lions in 1975 and is in charge of the country's eastern area. Like Neri, Joe also spent time with BLESTO prior to beginning work in Detroit. A graduate of North Carolina State, he coached in the Pittsburgh area for 11 years. Joe lives in Birmingham, Michigan.

The third member of the scouting team is Clarence "Dirk" Dierking, a staffer since June of 1978. His responsibilities revolve around the central United States, especially his native southwest. He too was employed by BLESTO before joining the Lions. He makes his home in Texas.

MONTE CLARK

Head Coach and Director of Football Operations

"We really showed some dramatic improvement this season. There were pluses and gains in every area. Hopefully, we need only a little fine tuning now."

The Lions had just completed the 1980 season at 9-7, a whisker out of the playoffs. Monte Clark was understandably disappointed, yet satisfied. He had just led one of the most dramatic turnarounds of any NFL team in recent memory. Detroit won seven more games last fall over 1979, and were the League's most improved team. Now, Monte stands at the helm of a legitimate NFL contender, with, as he says, only a little fine tuning between his team and a championship.

Clark's perseverance through the tough times didn't go unnoticed by the local media. After an impressive opening day victory at Los Angeles, the Detroit News was quick to remember the bad while relishing the good.

"Through it all, Mr. Clark was an exemplar of class, distaining the petulance and alibis that are common enough in the football trade. We want him to know Detroit is proud of him and his players."

These are some of the characteristics that have made Clark not only popular, but respected among players and media alike. And though the Coach and his team have been through some difficult times, they have stuck together. The foundation of solid football basics, laid down in the early going, have paid off over and over.

Clark has the complete support of Lion owner William Clay Ford, who hired him January 11, 1978 and gave the 6'6" coach complete control of the college draft, waivers, scouting and trades. Among the players Clark has brought to the Lions are Al "Bubba" Baker, Freddie Scott, Jimmy Allen, Tom Skladany, Keith Dorney, Ed Murray, and, of course, the spectacular Billy Sims.

The 44-year old coach came to the Lions with an outstanding background in the NFL. He spent six years as offensive coach under Don Shula at Miami. He was part of Shula's original staff there in 1970. Monte helped develop the Dolphins into one of the League's most feared units. A pair of Super Bowl titles, along with three straight AFC Championships, brought Clark immediate coaching recognition. Under his leadership, Miami led the conference in rushing three consecutive years, setting a new NFL single-season record in 1972 during the perfect 17-0 campaign.

Clark became head coach at San Francisco in 1976 and propelled the 49ers into playoff prominence. Only some close, late-season defeats denied the team a berth. But the record indicated an 8-6 mark for Monte in his first year as a head man and three more wins for the 49ers over the previous season.

Clark's coaching career followed an 11-year playing stint as an offensive lineman with San Francisco, Dallas and Cleveland. With the Browns, he appeared in the League Championship games of 1964, '65 and '68. Monte, who entered pro ball after a fine collegiate career at USC, is a native of Kingsburg, California.

Monte and his wife, Charlotte, live in Bloomfield Township and are the parents of three sons, Bryan, 20, a quarterback on the Michigan State University squad; Randy, 18; and Eric, 14.

★ "There's good reason to be optimistic. Most of the squad has experienced both sides of this business; the losing side and last year the winning end of it. We not only have the talent, but we have people who are dependable and stick together. The spirit around here has been great and we're counting on more good things happening."

BAUGHAN

BRUNNER

DOLL

MAXIE BAUGHAN — Defensive Coordinator and Linebacker Coach — Four-time All Pro linebacker Maxie Baughan joined the Lions staff in January 1980 to coordinate the Detroit defense. His unit responded with the NFC's second best defensive showing overall and ranked first in the NFL against the run last fall. Maxie came to Detroit after five seasons as defensive coordinator at Baltimore. With the Colts, he was part of three AFC Eastern Division championship squads. The 43-year old Baughan played pro football for 14 years, beginning as a second round draft choice of Philadelphia in 1960. He went to five Pro Bowl games for the Eagles before being traded to Los Angeles in 1966. As a Ram, Baughan was honored with four more Pro Bowl selections. Maxie became part of the "Over the Hill Gang" at Washington in 1971. Following a three-year retirement, Baughan returned as a player-coach under George Allen at Washington before joining the Colts. His first coaching experience came in 1972, when he began a two-year stint as defensive coordinator with his alma mater, Georgia Tech. Maxie and his wife, Diane, have three sons: Maxie III, Christopher and Matthew.

JOHN BRUNNER — Offensive Backfield Coach — Entering his second season with the Lions staff is John Brunner, a 13-year veteran of collegiate coaching. He spent four seasons at Temple University, where he helped the Owls to their best record ever in 1979. The school established new total offense, rushing and passing marks on its way to a 10-2 season. Brunner, 43, began his college coaching career with Villanova in 1967. From there he went to Temple in 1970, to Princeton in 1974, before returning to Temple in 1976. The oldest of John's seven children, Scott, quarterbacked Delaware to the small college national championship in 1979. Current Detroit quarterback Jeff Komlo had led the same school into the finals the year before. Scott was elected to the Kodak All-America team for his efforts and became a late-season starter for the New York Giants last year in his rookie season. Brunner was born in Perkesie, Pa. and attended East Stroudsburg State until his graduation in 1960. In addition to Scott, John and his wife, Barbara, are the parents of daughters Penny and Jan, and sons Jack, Jeff, Tod and Mark.

DON DOLL — Special Assignments Coach — Don Doll, a former Detroit Lions player and coach, returned to the club in 1978 as special teams coach. He now serves as Monte Clark's right hand man in administrative and office matters. Doll, 54, played with the Lions from 1949 through 1952, representing the club three times in Pro Bowls as a defensive back. He is still Detroit's co-record holder for interceptions in a season, 12 in 1950. His first pro coaching position was with Detroit in 1963, when he started a two-year stint as secondary coach under George Wilson. Previously he had coached at Southern California and Notre Dame in the college ranks. Doll went on to become the Rams defensive backfield coach in 1965, then went to Washington from 1966 to 1970, before spending the 1971 through 1973 seasons at Green Bay. Don was defensive coordinator at Baltimore in 1974, then a defensive coach at Miami the following year. Doll graduated from USC in 1948. In his first pro season with Detroit, he intercepted 11 passes, including four in one game. Don and his wife, Diana, have five children, Steven, Wendy, Kevan, Heidi and Michael.

HOAGLIN

MADDEN

PETERS

FRED HOAGLIN — Offensive Line Coach — Beginning his fourth year of NFL coaching, Fred Hoaglin has built an impressive offensive line from scratch. Working with rookies and young veterans, Hoaglin has impressed his former linemate, Monte Clark, whom he joined with Detroit in 1978. Clark, who played alongside Fred on the offensive line at Cleveland during the late 60s, says a sense of pride has developed among the front five. The 37-year old Hoaglin opened his 11-year playing career as a sixth round draftee of the Browns in 1966. Soon after, he began a string of 69 consecutive starts with the club, until a leg injury forced him out of the lineup in 1971. A 1969 Pro Bowler, Hoaglin was traded to Baltimore in 1973, then to Houston the following year. He was chosen as one of the original Seattle Seahawks in the veteran allocation of 1976. Fred played his college ball at the University of Pittsburgh, where he earned a degree in industrial engineering. The native of Alliance, Ohio is a long time member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Fred and his wife, Janet, are the parents of two children, a daughter, Patti, and a son, Ricky.

JOE MADDEN — Special Teams Coach — An 18-year veteran of college coaching, Joe Madden joined the pro ranks in February 1980 as Detroit's new special teams coach. Madden, 45, had spent the previous three seasons as assistant head coach to Johnny Majors at the University of Tennessee. He also coordinated the school's kicking and punting game. Madden began his college coaching career in 1962 at Mississippi State. He went to Morehead State the following year before spending four seasons at both Wake Forest and Iowa State. In 1972, Joe went to Kansas State, then joined Majors at the University of Pittsburgh the next year. He was Majors top assistant in 1976 when the Panthers won the national championship behind the running of Tony Dorsett and quarterbacking of Matt Cavanaugh. Madden personally recruited 20 members of that title-winning squad. When Majors moved to the top spot at Tennessee in 1977, Madden went with him. A graduate of the University of Maryland, Joe also holds a masters degree from Mississippi State. Madden and his wife, Janis, are the parents of two daughters, Kerry and Keely; and two sons, Casey and Duffy.

FLOYD PETERS — Defensive Line Coach — The creator of Detroit's feared "Silver Rush" is Floyd Peters, a former Lion player. Called the best defensive line coach in the business by Monte Clark, Peters, 45, is given much of the credit for the development of the Lions rush. Detroit collected a team record 55 quarterback sacks during his first year with the Lions. And considering two seasons of injuries, totals of 45 and 44 last year are equally impressive. Peters was also responsible for San Francisco's "Gold Rush," a group which rolled up an NFL high 61 sacks in 1976. Peters was a three-time Pro Bowl performer as a defensive tackle; in 1964, 1966 and 1967 all with the Philadelphia Eagles. He was voted MVP of the 1966 contest. Floyd also played with Baltimore, Cleveland, Detroit (in 1963), and Washington over the course of a 12-year career. He was a player-coach under Vince Lombardi at Washington in 1970. His first full-time coaching position was with the New York Giants in 1974. After two seasons, Peters joined Clark at San Francisco. He was the first assistant hired by Clark upon his appointment to the Lions in 1978. A graduate of San Francisco State, Floyd and his wife, Nancy, are the parents of four sons, Craig, Kelly, Dean and Allen.

PHILLIPS

SCHNELKER

SEIPLE

MEL PHILLIPS — Defensive Backfield Coach — A former player under Monte Clark at San Francisco, Mel Phillips came aboard in February 1980 as the Lions new defensive backfield coach. Clark sees a positive rapport developing between Phillips and his secondary men. Phillips, 39, played 12 seasons in the NFL from 1966-77, all with the 49ers. Mel worked under Clark in 1976 and Monte was instantly impressed with his intensity and attitude. Phillips played in all 14 games that year, intercepting two passes and recovering a fumble. Mel's career stats include 10 interceptions for 106 yards in returns, including a 35-yard touchdown in 1970. He was regarded as one of the most respected defensive backs in the game when he retired in 1977. Phillips played both ways during his college career at North Carolina A&T. During his senior year, the school won its conference championship, with Mel intercepting two passes and scoring two rushing TDs in the title game. He has been very active at the Youth Guidance Center in San Francisco for many years. He and his wife, Patricia, have two daughters, Paulette and Yvette.

BOB SCHNELKER — Offensive Coordinator and Quarterback Coach — In his fourth season with the Lions, Bob Schnelker continues to be one of the finest offensive-minded coaches in the NFL. A veteran of 18 years in the National Football League, the 52-year old Schnelker calls all of Detroit's plays from his perch in the press box. In recent years, Lions fans have been treated to some exciting offense, with emphasis on the pass, a Schnelker forte. Bob has worked under some of the most honored coaches in the business, including Vince Lombardi at Green Bay and Don Shula at Miami. Schnelker came to Detroit in 1978 after three seasons with Kansas City. Bob's first pro coaching job came in 1963 with the Rams. In 1966, he joined Lombardi and the Packers. During six years with Green Bay, Schnelker saw the Pack win three straight League championships and the first two Super Bowls. Schnelker went to San Diego in 1972, then to Miami in 1974, before joining the Chiefs. A standout tight end, Bob played with the Giants from 1954 through 1960. He went to three championships and two Pro Bowls over the period. Late in his career, Bob caught the first of Fran Tarkenton's NFL record 342 touchdown passes. He and his wife, B. J., have three children, Mindy, Jeff and Tina.

LARRY SEIPLE — Receivers Coach — Monte Clark's first receiver coach in Detroit, Larry Seiple, enters his second year with the Lions. Seiple is the Lions first receiver coach since Raymond Berry in 1975. A 12-year veteran of NFL wars, Seiple was a punter and tight end with the Miami Dolphins from 1967-77. In 1979, Larry was an assistant coach under Howard Schnellenberger at the University of Miami. Clark worked with Seiple during his six-year stint as an assistant with the Dolphins. Both saw the club rise to the top, winning two Super Bowls and three AFC Championships during the early 70s. Larry's best receiving year was 1969 when he led the Dolphins with 41 receptions for 577 yards. Seiple's professional career punting average was an even 40 yards per kick, with his best season coming in 1973 when he averaged 42.3. During his pro career, Seiple logged more game appearances (160) than any Dolphin other than Bob Griese. Larry was drafted in the seventh round in 1967 by Miami. He attended the University of Kentucky. Seiple, 36, and his wife, Trudy, are the parents of two daughters, Keri and Lori; and a son, Larry.

Born: San Francisco, Calif., May 28, 1955

Pro Career — Provided valuable emergency help at defensive tackle last season . . . When injuries decimated the position, Gay stepped into a strange spot and did very well . . . Played in all 16 games, with starts in nine, including the last eight straight . . . Picked up 31 solo tackles and three quarterback sacks . . . Also blocked a PAT at Los Angeles . . . A former tight end in college and during his rookie pro season . . . Has beefed up considerably with help from Strength Coach Gary Wade and the weight room . . . Came here as compensation for Charlie West in 1978.

College — Led USC in minutes played during his last two years . . . Transferred from San Diego J.C. where he was used as a linebacker.

Personal — Main hobby has to be weight lifting, a constant activity with him all year . . . Lives in the Detroit area with wife, Gwen, and new son, Reuben.

DID YOU KNOW?

The difference between winning and losing in the NFC Central is the closest of any division in the NFL.

The division title has been determined by a tie-breaker procedure in each of the last four years (equaled only once before in NFL history — by the AFC East in 1975-78). Each of the five teams in the division have been involved in at least one of the last three tie-breakers and over the last three years, the team with the best overall record (Minnesota 24-23-1) has won only six more games than the team with the lowest overall record (Detroit 18-30).

66 ★ TOM GINN

Offensive Guard — Arkansas — 2nd Year
Ht. 6-3 Wt. 255 — Drafted '80, 5th round
Born: Scotia, Ca., Jan. 25, 1958

Pro Career — Responded very well while filling in for injured vets last season . . . Started three games at center and two at guard, while playing in 14 games . . . Learned his assignments quickly and gained invaluable experience in his first NFL year . . . A strong special teams player, especially on kick coverage . . . Will undoubtedly continue improving, while gaining strength and speed . . . Came to the Lions with a 4.85 clocking in the 40 yard dash.

College — Helped Arkansas to the Southwest Conference co-championship in 1979. A co-captain with the Razorbacks . . . Awarded three varsity letters while playing both guard and center.

Personal — Single and lives in Fayetteville, Ark.

51 ★ JAMES HARRELL

Linebacker — Florida — 3rd Year
Ht. 6-2 Wt. 215 — Free Agent '79 (Denver)
Born: Tampa, Fla., July 19, 1957

Pro Career — Comes off the injured reserve list after missing the final 10 games . . . Appeared in five contests, all with special teams . . . Opened his pro career on a high note, finishing the 1979 season as the Lions starting right side linebacker . . . Overlooked in the 1979 draft, he came on to record 62 solo and 35 assisted tackles as a rookie . . . In one three week stretch he came up with stellar performances against Tampa Bay (10 tackles), Minnesota (11) and Chicago on Thanksgiving . . . Came to the Lions on waivers from Denver.

College — Never started a game for Florida, though his coach, Doug Dickey, said he could be a first stringer just about anywhere else in the country . . . Primarily a special teamer in college.

Personal — Moved to Detroit from his native Tampa, Fla., last year with his wife, Shirley.

Ht. 6-0 Wt. 212 — Drafted '80, 1st round
Born: St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 18, 1955

Pro Career — A landslide choice as the NFL Rookie of the Year in 1980 . . . His 1,303 yards rushing was the third highest by any rookie in NFL history . . . Only Earl Campbell and Ottis Anderson gained more in a season . . . Shattered every season rushing record in the Lion books . . . Only the second Detroit'er ever to break the 1,000-yard barrier . . . Steve Owens' 1,035 in 1971 was the other . . . 313 attempts also broke an Owens' mark . . . Led the NFL in touchdowns with 16 . . . His 13 rushing scores broke another Detroit record . . . As did his five 100-yard games . . . No Lion has more than six in an entire career . . . In his debut, Sept. 7 at Los Angeles, Sims galloped for 153 yards and three touchdowns . . . The following week, at Green Bay, he ran for 134 and scored two more TDs . . . His 95 yards in the third week against St. Louis left him just five yards short of becoming the first NFL rookie ever to gain over 100 yards in his first three games . . . Still returned in week four with his best effort of the year; 157 yards against Minnesota Sept. 28 . . . Other 100-yard games came at Kansas City; 155, Oct. 26, and against Baltimore; 126, Nov. 16 . . . Finished fourth in NFC rushing after leading the conference much of the way . . . Together with his 51 receptions for 621 yards, his total yardage of 1,924 was second only to Campbell in the NFL . . . Voted Lions offensive MVP and an AP, NEA, PFW All-NFL team member . . . Played in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

College — First team All-America selection by everyone during his junior and senior seasons . . . Won Heisman Trophy as a junior (the sixth Heisman winner to play for Detroit) . . . That year he led the NCAA in rushing with 1,762 yards . . . His 7.09 yards per carry set a new NCAA career record . . . Averaged 160.2 yards per game as a junior; 136.9 as a senior . . . Had 20 100-yard games; seven 200-yard contests . . . College totals include 538 attempts for 3,813 yards and 50 touchdowns . . . Billy caught just three passes during his entire college career.

Personal — Earned degree in recreational therapy . . . Enjoys working with the underprivileged . . . Still drives a truck, which he likes tinkering with . . . Lives in the Detroit suburbs with his wife, Brenda, and son, Billy, Jr.

1981 ROOKIES

1981 DRAFT CHOICES

Round One: (16th choice)

MARK NICHOLS

Wide Receiver — San Jose State

Ht. 6-2 Wt. 210

Born: Bakersfield, Ca., Oct. 29, 1959

Possibly the "game breaker" the Lions have been looking for . . . Big and fast with 4.4 speed in the 40-yard dash . . . Caught the ball well during the Lions spring mini-camp . . . Scouts say he has the size to run through jams and catch the ball over big defensive backs . . . Labeled as one of the finest deep receivers in the draft . . . Monte Clark said "We think that he'll give the same kind of a lift to our pass offense that Billy (Sims) did to our run offense." . . . "He fits the bill in every category." . . . Personnel Director Tim Rooney said "Getting Mark is a classic case of the best athlete filling a tremendous need." . . . A first team All-PCAA choice in 1979, when he grabbed 29 passes for a school record 773 yards and a record 11 touchdowns . . . Caught three TDs against Long Beach State in a 1979 contest to establish another SJS mark . . . Finished as the school's third all-time leading receiver with 1,217 yards on 48 catches and 16 touchdowns . . . Averaged almost 26 yards per reception . . . Played in the East-West Shrine and Senior Bowl games following the 1980 season . . . Last fall, he caught 19 passes for 444 yards and five TDs . . . Transferred from Bakersfield Junior College following the 1978 campaign . . . Averaged 38 yards per catch there on 16 receptions for 445 yards . . . Also a member of the San Jose State track squad . . . Majoring in Physical Education.

"We expect Mark to give the same kind of lift to our pass offense that Billy (Sims) gave to our run offense."

—MONTE CLARK

Round Two:

CURTIS GREEN

Defensive End/Tackle — Alabama State

Ht. 6-3 Wt. 256

Born: Quincy, Fla., June 3, 1958

Could step in and start this fall for Detroit . . . Very quick with 4.75 speed, fastest among Lion defensive linemen . . . Has experience at both tackle and end, as well as at line-backer . . . A fine pass rusher, especially from the inside . . . Defensive line coach Floyd Peters said he had the best instincts of any lineman he'd seen and that he compared favorably with Star Tommy Hall . . . Came up with 113 tackles and six sacks last season, including a one-game high of 14 tackles vs. Albany State . . . In three seasons with the Hornets, he amassed 253 tackles and 20 sacks . . . His best career day was a 16 tackle performance versus Mississippi Valley State in 1979 . . . Failed to miss a game during his three-year career . . . Gained nine tackles, four assists and a sack in the Blue-Gray Classic last year, when he also played some at outside linebacker . . . Also the defensive MVP player in last year's Black All-Star game, where Lion Maxie Baughan served as a coach . . . Majoring in Physical Education.

Round Three:

DON GRECO

Offensive Guard — Western Illinois

Ht. 6-2 Wt. 256

Born: St. Louis, Mo., April 1, 1959

An impressive offensive lineman with plenty of potential . . . Has great speed (4.93) and will work well as a pulling guard . . . Clark, who saw him on film, said "He just waffled some people and that wasn't his best game." . . . Can vertical jump 32 inches, incredible for his size . . . At Lion mini-camp he set a new record on Detroit's leg press, lifting 830 pounds . . . Can also bench press over 400 pounds . . . Started four seasons with Western Illinois . . . Graduated with a string of consecutive starts to his credit . . . A Little-All-America selection during the last two seasons . . . Also all-conference and "Western Illinois' All-Time Outstanding Lineman" . . . Graded out at 92% during the 1980 campaign.

Round Four:

TRACY PORTER

Wide Receiver — Louisiana State

Ht. 6-1 Wt. 196

LIONS 1980 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARY

SEPT. 7 — LIONS 41, RAMS 20

at Anaheim, Ca., 64,892

Detroit	10	7	10	14	—	41
Los Angeles	6	14	0	0	—	20
LA — D. Hill 98 kickoff return (kick failed)
D — Murray 52 FG
D — Sims 1 run (Murray kick)
LA — Bryant 1 run (Corral kick)
LA — Peacock 1 run (Corral kick)
D — Sims 1 run (Murray kick)
D — Murray 38 FG
D — Bussey 15 run (Murray kick)
D — Sims 41 run (Murray kick)
D — King 4 run (Murray kick)

The Lions exploded out of the gate in 1980, with a surprising upset of the NFC Champion Rams at their new home: Anaheim Stadium. Rookie Billy Sims, in his first NFL game, romped for 153 yards and three touchdowns, averaging 6.95 yards per carry along the way. Together with Dexter Bussey's 111 yard effort, the twosome became the first Lions since 1954 to run for over 100 yards on the same day. While Detroit racked up 330 rushing yards on the afternoon, the vaunted Rams were held to just 86 on the ground.

SEPT. 14 — LIONS 29, PACKERS 7

at Milwaukee, Wis., 53,099

Detroit	3	13	6	7	—	29
Green Bay	0	7	0	0	—	7
D — Murray 32 FG
D — Murray 39 FG
GB — Ivery 5 run (Marcol kick)
D — Sims 1 run (Murray kick)
D — Murray 43 FG
D — Murray 42 FG
D — Murray 23 FG
D — Sims 87 pass from Danielson (Murray kick)

On the strength of five Ed Murray field goals, the Lions won their second straight, both on the road. The rookie kicker from Tulane fell one field goal short of Garo Yepremian's club record for a game, but did strengthen his hold on the NFL scoring lead. Sims also picked up two more touchdowns and another 100-yard game, this one a 134 yard effort. One score, an 87-yard TD pass, erased any doubt about Sims' receiving ability. Green Bay could muster only 59 yards on the ground.

SEPT. 21 — LIONS 20, CARDINALS 7

at Pontiac, 80,027

St. Louis	0	7	0	0	—	7
Detroit	0	10	0	10	—	20
D — Murray 25 FG
D — King 13 pass from Danielson (Murray kick)
STL — Gray 63 pass from Hart (Little kick)
D — Sims 13 run (Murray kick)
D — Murray 34 FG

Before the largest opening day crowd in Detroit history, the Lions returned home and charged to a third straight victory. But, in a game which was closer than the score indicated, Sims was held under 100 yards for the first time in 1980. With 95 yards on the day, Billy just missed becoming the first rookie ever to run for over 100 in his first three pro games. Detroit's defense came up with five sacks, stopping St. Louis inside Lion territory on many occasions.

SEPT. 28 — LIONS 27, VIKINGS 7
at Pontiac, 80,291

Minnesota	0	7	0	0	—	7
Detroit	7	0	3	17	—	27

- D — Hill 3 pass from Danielson (Murray kick)
- M — Rashad 40 pass from Kramer (Danmeier kick)
- D — Murray 36 FG
- D — Scott 5 pass from Danielson (Murray kick)
- D — Oldham 29 interception return (Murray kick)
- D — Murray 24 FG

Off to their best start since 1956, the Lions feasted on an old nemesis: the Minnesota Vikings. Sims enjoyed his finest game of the season, running for 157 yards. He pushed his League-leading rushing total to 539 after four weeks. But the big story may have been the defense, which held the opposition to a scoreless second half for the fourth consecutive game. The Lions also intercepted five Tommy Kramer passes, including two each by Ray "Bob" Oldham and James Hunter. Oldham's TD return of a steal, immediately following Fred Scott's scoring reception, broke the contest wide open in the fourth quarter.

OCT. 5 — FALCONS 43, LIONS 28
at Atlanta, Ga., 57,652

Detroit	3	3	0	22	—	28
Atlanta	17	17	2	7	—	43

- D — Murray 43 FG
- A — Reed 16 blocked punt return (Mazzetti kick)
- A — Curry 30 fumble return (Mazzetti kick)
- A — Mazzetti 26 FG
- A — Jenkins 43 pass from Bartkowski (Mazzetti kick)
- A — Williams 42 fumble return (Mazzetti kick)
- A — Mazzetti 33 FG
- D — Murray 32 FG
- A — Safety. Williams tackled Danielson in end zone
- D — Scott 43 pass from Danielson (Murray kick)
- A — Andrews 11 run (Mazzetti kick)
- D — L. Thompson 79 pass from Danielson (Murray kick)
- D — Scott 6 pass from Danielson (kick wide)
- D — Safety. Cole tackled R. Smith in end zone

Leading the NFL in most offensive and defensive categories, Detroit couldn't overcome a series of early mistakes in its first loss of 1980. In a wild and woolly game, Atlanta scored 34 first half points, primarily on a pair of fumble returns and a blocked punt return. The Lions staged a furious comeback, but too late. Quarterback Gary Danielson completed 23 of 36 for 348 yards and three touchdowns, but Atlanta shut down the Lions running game, holding Sims to 21 and the team to 72. Both clubs picked up safeties in a truly unusual game.

Back home in the Silverdome, the Lions ran their record to 5-1 with a 14 point knockout in the fourth quarter. Sims scored twice, his 7th and 8th touchdowns of the year, and gained 91 yards. Wide receiver Fred Scott was the game's second leading ground gainer on just one carry, a 48 yard reverse for a touchdown. Detroit's defense sacked Archie Manning six times, including 2½ by Al "Bubba" Baker, and allowed the Saints just 60 yards rushing. At this point, Detroit had outscored its opponents 110-19 in the second half.

Suffering from an incredible string of injuries, especially along the offensive line, the Lions dropped their second game of the season at Chicago. Operating without center Amos Fowler, guard Homer Elias and tackle Keith Dorney, Detroit was held to just 65 yards on the ground, 53 of it by Billy Sims. Leonard Thompson caught his second scoring bomb in three weeks for the Lions only score. Bear Walter Payton recorded his 38th career 100-yard game with 101, while quarterback Vince Evans, in his first start of the year, had to attempt only eight passes.

A Kansas City field goal with just over a minute remaining sunk the Lions again, despite 155 yards and two touchdowns from the NFL's leading rusher, Billy Sims. It was Sims' fourth 100-yard day, setting a new Lions record. But the Chiefs played almost errorless football, with only three penalties and no fumbles, and won their fourth straight contest. Danielson suffered two costly interceptions as the team was held to just 91 yards in net passing.

Detroit survived six turnovers and a stout 49er comeback in the final minutes to preserve the victory. Two interceptions and four lost fumbles hurt the Lions time after time as Detroit racked up 411 total offensive yards to San Francisco's 241. Danielson completed 23 of 32 for 263 yards and scored the winning touchdown with five minutes left. And, Billy Sims, who caught just two passes in college, grabbed 11 for 96 yards, one catch short of Detroit's single game record.

Turnovers once again haunted the Lions as they lost four fumbles and had one pass intercepted in a lopsided Minnesota win. The Vikings used every opportunity handed to them, and there were many. Tommy Kramer fired 22 of 32 for 295 yards, despite a finger injury. Still wobbling under the injury strain, Detroit's offense mustered just 48 yards rushing and suffered eight quarterback sacks. Minnesota's 446 total offensive yards far outdistanced the Lions' 178.

Detroit's first 1980 home loss contained plenty of heroics, but not many points. Billy Sims' 126 yards made him the Lions all-time single season rushing leader, while Dexter Bussey's 69 yards put him into second place on the club's all-time career rushing charts. However, Sims fumbled three times, losing one inside the Colts' 10-yard line, and Ed Murray had one field goal blocked and another skim wide in the final seconds. The defense put in a good day, intercepting three Bert Jones passes.

The Lions jumped back into the NFC Central Division lead with a solid game at Tampa. Overcoming a 10-0 Buc advantage, Detroit got 75 yards rushing from Sims and an accurate 22 of 29 day from Danielson to score 24 unanswered points. Rookies Wayne Smith, who intercepted his first NFL pass, and Ray Williams, who added a 53-yard punt return, also contributed to the victory. The Lions defense stopped Tampa Bay for only 45 yards rushing and picked up three fumbles along the way.

Chicago scored 16 points with no time left on the game clock and erased a 17-3 Lion lead to defeat the Detroiters in overtime. A field goal at the 15:00 minute mark of the second quarter, a touchdown by quarterback Vince Evans at the 15:00 minute mark of the fourth quarter, and Dave Williams' 95-yard kickoff return before the clock even started in overtime, stunned the Lions. It was the first overtime game ever at the Silverdome and only Detroit's second anywhere. But it also had to be the shortest overtime in NFL history. Sims ran for 72 yards and Bussey for 64, but Chicago's Walter Payton countered with 123.

 STL — O'Donoghue 25 FG
 STL — R. Green 57 punt return (O'Donoghue kick)

For the second straight week a breakdown in kick coverage spelled disaster for the Lions. But this time, the loss knocked Detroit out of the NFC Central lead and eventually the playoffs. The Lions bettered St. Louis in total yards 304 to 225 and took a 23-14 lead late in the third quarter. But, after a Cardinal field goal, St. Louis had suddenly won it with a Roy Green punt return TD at the 11:20 mark. It was Detroit's fourth loss in five weeks.

Knocked out of the NFC Central title by Ahmad Rashad's miracle catch for Minnesota hours earlier, the Lions polished off Tampa Bay for the second time in 1980. Quarterback Gary Danielson had his best career day ever, completing a club record 29 of 44 for 360 yards. Only Bobby Layne, who did it twice, threw for more yardage in a single game for Detroit. Rookie Ray Williams enjoyed a big day, catching a 22-yard score and returning a kickoff 91 yards for another touchdown. The Lion defense throttled the Bucs' attack, limiting Tampa Bay to just 213 total yards and only 40 on the ground.

The Lions closed out their most successful season in eight with a convincing victory over Green Bay. Dexter Bussey and Billy Sims both scored touchdowns, Sims' being his 16th of the year to lead the NFL and set a new Detroit standard. Fred Scott caught five passes for 75 yards and a TD to finish as the club's leading receiver. Detroit finished No. 1 against the run on defense, holding Green Bay to only 87 yards. Al Baker earned three sacks, running his team leading total to 18 for the year. It was the Lions seventh straight sellout at the Silverdome.

HISTORY OF THE DETROIT LIONS

Almost a half century ago, the Lions began a long and successful association with the Detroit area as its National Football League representative.

Detroit welcomed the Lions 47 years ago, but it was not the area's first look at professional football.

In 1920, the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present NFL. But the club folded after two years. Then, the Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925. They also folded after two seasons. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after just one year.

In 1930, the then 10-year-old National Football League took in a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio, called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for less than $8,000 by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before average crowds of 16,000 people, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL Championship in their second year, 1935. Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars like Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddel, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit and for over 40 years they have been an integral part of the Michigan sports scene.

In 1940, Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lions stars of that era were Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojciechowicz, John Greene, "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. The team was sold, eight years later, to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the club until 1964 when William Clay Ford became sole owner for a price of six million dollars.

The Lions dominated the NFL in the 1950's with four division titles and three League championships. Under Head Coach Buddy Parker, the team won back-to-back world crowns in 1952 and 1953, defeating Cleveland in both title games. Stars of those glittering teams were Hall of Famers Bobby Layne and Jack Christiansen, Doak Walker, Les Bingaman, Cloyce Box, Leon Hart and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Detroit-Cleveland battles of the era were classic confrontations between two giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title in 1957 under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have been looking in vain for the top spot. Such recent performers as Joe Schmidt, Yale Lary and "Night Train" Lane have been elected to the Hall of Fame. Outstanding players like Wayne Walker, Mike Lucci, Nick Pietrosante, Roger Brown, Terry Barr, Lem Barney and Charlie Sanders have taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In 1967, Joe Schmidt began the first of six seasons as Head Coach of the Lions. His 1970 team made the post-season playoffs, but lost in the first round to Dallas.

Just prior to the 1975 season, the Lions moved into a fantastic new stadium in Pontiac, Michigan, a town of 85,000 people located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome is the world's largest air-supported domed structure and seats over 80,000 spectators under a Fiberglas roof.

Control of all football operations was handed to Head Coach Monte Clark in 1978. Clark's winning approach has brought a new optimism to Lions' faithful. With top caliber talent like Al "Bubba" Baker, Gary Danielson, Ken Fantetti, Ed Murray, Dave Pureifory, Billy Sims, and Dexter Bussey, plus the astute direction of a proven winner like Monte Clark, the Lions are determined to regain a place among pro footballs' finest.
